Inspirational Quotes – New directions in miracles!
By James Middleton

Expand your mind, boost your enthusiasm. Inspiration starts with you.

<http://www.miracleofmeditation.com>

Well done for taking the first step to miracles!!

Why I wrote this book.

Because I know how you think. Your inner desire to work out why we are all here, and what to do about it.

All these quotes and inspirational ideas have been used by me personally. These are the ones that I find most supportive and inspirational.

These are resources, quotes and ideas that I have tried, applied, and been inspired by.

I feel it's very important to only recommend products or ideas that I have benefited from and found helpful. To do otherwise I believe lacks integrity.

Promote or sell something that you sincerely believe will help others. There is a no end of free products obtainable from the internet, which frankly aren't worth the electron space on your computer. There are others, which should be on your desktop inspiring you to succeed and make more of yourself.

One that comes to mind is Patric Chan's "Success Quotes".

<http://www.esuccessmastery.com>

If you have not already got a copy of his “Success Quotes” go grab one soon. As far as I know he is still not charging for this fabulous resource.

If you want some really powerful relationship help, Patric’s new book has now been released:-

You Want To Have A More Loving, Happy And Lasting Relationship with your sweetheart?

Announcing:

"How To Improve Your Love Relationship In As Little As 30 Days With These 101 Proven Tips Guaranteed Or Your Money Back 100%!"

and you can get it now at:

There is a wealth of resources and tools to help you make the best of yourself, and it is really not so hard to “take massive action” to quote Anthony Robbins. It is possible to achieve your life’s dream if you so desire. Simply take action!

What we give out to others comes back to ourselves, is the lesson I have learned these past few years, which is why I wrote this book. The law of abundance being applied right here - in action. You can distribute this book for FREE (at this time), and even though it could do with polishing I am too fired up to keep it to myself; which is why I am giving it away for FREE!

Some tips for reading the book.

As I have collected so many quotes, it would be best to read no more than 4 or 5 quotes a day. It will work best if you pause and actually reflect on the meaning contained in each quote and apply them to your life. You could be surprised; they can really change your life and your thinking if you really absorb them and APPLY them to yourself.

My sincere hope is that you too find many of these quotes inspiring and uplifting and that they energise you with your spiritual pursuits - whatever they may be. My wish is that they stimulate and kick-start you to make more time for relating to that special side of you - "Your inner spiritual self".

It wasn't until I had my first out of body experience that I really knew I wasn't just a `body`, I had a `soul` or `spirit` if you will, that could exist apparently entirely separately from my physical body. This was one of the few profound experiences I had which prompted me to explore a little further. I hope you don't have to have the kind of shock I had to get you moving a little more. I like to think gentle reminders will do the job just as well.

So that being said here they are. The selection you see has been deliberately randomised by the power of the computer and my good friend Terry Williams, and his genius with software.

Please feel free to pass a copy of "Miracles of Words ~ Inspirational Quotes" to friends and relatives who you think may enjoy it.

“The miraculous is not extraordinary but the common mode of existence. It is our daily bread. Whoever really has considered the lilies of the field or the birds of the air and pondered the improbability of their existence in this warm world within the cold and empty stellar distances will hardly balk at the turning of water into wine which was, after all, a very small miracle. We forget the greater and still continuing miracle by which water (with soil and sunlight) is turned into grapes.”

“When you plant lettuce, if it does not grow well, you don't blame the lettuce. You look for reasons it is not doing well. It

How I reply to e-mails, design web pages, write books like this, post on forums, or automate any other task with just three keystrokes!

This breakthrough software has increased my free time by 800%.

There's finally a software program that automatically performs tedious business tasks for you so you don't have to!

My online business has been expanding rapidly over the last few months, and the volume of email that I have to answer each day has literally gone through the roof. At first, I was pleased with myself and I really enjoyed answering every single email.

Anyone who's been running a business for longer than a couple of months will tell you, however, that answering the same advice and customer service questions over and over again can be extremely tedious, and although it is crucial that they all be taken care of as quickly as possible, sometimes we just wish they would answer themselves!

That's why I use BizAutomator.

BizAutomator can...

§ Automatically take care of repetitive customer inquiries so that you can free up your time for more complicated work

§ Quickly and easily relay technically complex answers that you've previously obtained from a computer-savvy person to customers who want to know the answers

§ Ensure 100% grammatically-correct, error-free, professional answers every time by responding with perfectly pre-defined templates to your emails

§ Perform tedious web design tasks such as setting up just the right table alignment with just a few simple keystrokes

§ Write scripts and software code even if you don't know how by inserting code templates that you receive from a programmer or download from the Internet

§ Remember all of your affiliate links and URLs so that you have them at your fingertips, so that next time when you want to tell someone about a web site you can just hit a few keystrokes and insert the right information

§ Automatically type a signature for you on message boards and emails and get some free advertising in around the clock

§ Instantly insert phone numbers, addresses, and email addresses into documents and emails by just typing a pre-defined "nickname" or "alias" (for example, type "john's email" and BizAutomator will type "john@hotmail.com" into whatever document you're typing in)

Whatever you do on the computer, BizAutomator can automate and simplify it, which will directly result in you having more free time to make more money and just plain relax.

Just to encourage you to look at how awesome BizAutomator can work for you, I offer a 90 day guarantee so that you can try it without worrying whether you have made the right investment! Anytime during those 90 days, if you decide it's not for you, simply ask for a refund. I wouldn't want your money if it didn't save you time, effort and make life considerably easier for you .

Mark Joyner

Okay, here are some words about Mark Joyner. He is the ex CEO of Aesop.com and is a real internet marketing genius of this century. In only a couple of months, he sold his latest product, “The Mark Joyner Farewell Package” and it grossed sales revenues worth millions. I have never seen an ordinary internet marketer that has achieved such astounding results in just a few short years.

Apart from that, he has authored and published the book, MindControlMarketing.com which is well worth reading.

This is NOT a typical marketing book, it has received testimonials from such well known people such as Joe Vitale, Brian Tracy and Jay Conrad Levinson.

However, he decided to leave his internet marketing business and move to his latest project, called the ‘free agent path’. He found his 18 hour days were not what he had in mind, and he was not free!

You can find out how free agent path can benefit you at;

<http://www.thefreeagentpath.com>

Unfortunately I have not yet had the privilege of working with this man but my mentor and friend Patric Chan has :-)

Patric reports that “If there is a word for Mark, he would be a very humble and kind hearted person when you get to know this man in person.”

The Craziest Internet Business Idea in History

by Mark Joyner

So, you've got a great Internet business idea. Yeah, I'm talking to you. You know who you are. You have this great idea that you love to brag about. You tell all of your friends how it's going to make you a millionaire.

And to you, oh great generator of ideas, I say:

So what!

I know (literally) hundreds of people that come up with million dollar ideas on a daily basis. I can count on my hands, however, the number of those people that have actually achieved a respectable level of success with those ideas.

What about you? Are you sitting there feeling good about yourself with that great idea of yours or are you actually doing something about it?

Now, before you answer that question, be honest with yourself about what you want. Some people, it seems, are satisfied just having people pat them on the back for having such a great idea. What about you? Is the pat on the back enough? If so, stop reading right now. I'm just going to waste your time if that is the case.

However, if you're one of the elite few that genuinely has what it takes to turn that idea into money, read on.

~ Point of No Return Starts Here ~

Still with me?

OK, then. Let's get started.

1. Pick one idea.

Decide right now that you want to turn this idea into money and try not to get bogged down in other ideas.

You're going to come up with hundreds of other ideas before you see this one to completion. Resist the temptation to treat all of them equally. You will be tempted to pursue every single idea you have. This is the kiss of death. You need to narrow your focus. That's the key to success.

2. Stop rationalizing.

Somewhere along the way you're going to say to yourself: "This idea isn't working because it's not the best idea. I should have picked another."

Rubbish! This is the lazy part of your mind trying to give you an excuse for quitting.

Don't quit. You don't know that the "other idea" is better. You can't know this.

Drive on.

3. It's the marketing, stupid.

You should spend more of your time marketing than on any other task. In the course of running your business, it's easy to get caught up in a million idiotic things.

For example: "Which colour paint do you think would look best in the ladies room? Pink or mauve?"

Who cares! Make little decisions quickly, or pass them to someone else. If you are not spending 90% of your working day on marketing, something is wrong.

Fix it!

Now, you can say to yourself: "Of course he's right - I don't need Mark Joyner to tell me all these things" and then forget everything I've said.

Or...

Or, you can get started right now. I think you know which path leads to wealth and success. The question is, do you really want it?
